No more effective argument was used with and by the colored voters of the city in yesterday's election, than the simple display and quotations from the columns of the so-called democratic organ down the street, where it neaped vilification and abuse in unmeasured terms upon the colored voters, their wives and sisters. The false pretenses of friendship and love by the democratic workers, and even the offers of money had no effect, and the colored men, with the fewest exceptions imaginable, put in the straight republican ticket.

Immense and Overwhelming Republican Gains Everywhere.

Astonishing the Overjoyous Republicans and Dumbfound-ing the Enemy.

Knoxville Goes Republican and not a District in the County Democratic.

Gain of Two Congressmen Almost Certain, but we Must Cease.

The tale that is told in our figures and specials which appear in this issue, fill us too full for utterance. Nothing in the history of politics or parties was ever known to equal it. It was a complete and overwhelming revolution here at home. Knoxville was carried for the republican presidential ticket by nine votes, the first time since the war, and so far as heard from not a district in the county has gone democratic.

As far as heard from Hawkins, republican, for governor, has a majority of about 500 in the county. Henderson, democrat, for the senate, only 40 ahead of Huddleston. Cornick leads Reeder by only 12 and McKinney only 106 over the plain McEwen in the city. But the whole republican ticket in the county is elected by something like 1,000 majority. The specials below speak for themselves.

TENTH DISTRICT, KNOX COUNTY. Special dispatch to the Chronicle.

CONCORD, TENN., Nov. 2. The following is a vote of the tenth district: Hancock 173; Garfield 175; Wright 168; Hawkins 176; Wilson 238; Hook 174; Henderson 178; Huddleston 175; Cornick 173; Reeder 173; McKinney 175; McEwen 174.

LOUDON COUNTY. Special Dispatch to the Chronicle.

Hancock ninety-nine, Garfield eighty-three; ticket straight; no split or scratch; Dawson, republican, for representative, one behind the ticket. Wilson didn't get a vote.

JEFFERSON COUNTY. Special dispatch to the Chronicle.

STRAWBERRY PLAINS, Nov. 2. The fifteenth district of Jefferson county voted as follows: Garfield eighty-nine; Hancock forty-one; Hawkins eighty-nine; Wright forty-three; Wilson none; Hook fifty-nine; Williams forty-three.

MONROE COUNTY. Special Dispatch to the Chronicle.

SWEETWATER, Nov. 2, 1880. The election passed off quietly here to-day. The republicans polled the heaviest vote they ever have. A gain of fifteen to twenty. Hawkins seventy-five; Hook eighty. Shipley, republican, for state senator, seventy-three; Dawson, republican, for joint representative, seventy-four. Carter, democratic candidate for state senator, one hundred and sixty-two; Cannon, democrat for joint representative, one hundred and sixty-one; Wright, for governor, fifty-nine; Wilson, for governor, one hundred and one; Williams, for congress, one hundred and fifty.

GREENE COUNTY. Special dispatch to the Chronicle.

GREENEVILLE, Nov. 2.—S:45 p. m. Greenville precinct—Congress, Pettibone 161; Taylor 154. Governor, Hawkins 161; Wright ninety-seven; Wilson fifty-nine. Garfield 163; Hancock 147. No returns in yet. Pettibone will carry Greens by over one hundred majority.

Special Dispatch to the Chronicle.

GREENEVILLE, Nov. 2. In five districts of Greene county Pettibone gets 425, Taylor 520. In 1878 Pettibone's vote in the same districts was 342, Taylor's 475. This is a net gain of 88 for Pettibone. Hawkins' majority so far is 80 over Wright.

DAVIDSON COUNTY. Special dispatch to the Chronicle.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 2.—The republican vote was put in almost solid to-day for the republican ticket, while Wright got some colored vote. Wilson got none. The Wilson men weakened early in the fight, and regarded his defeat as inevitable. He will not even be good third. Wright will carry the city over him by 2500, and will beat Hawkins in the county. It is thought the vote between Wright and Hawkins in the county will be close. Montgomery and Maury counties will go for Wright.

House is re-elected to congress from the sixth district. Wright, so far, runs ahead of Wilson in Rutherford, Bedford, Robertson and Chatham, in three of which Wilson was supposed to have the greatest strength. Hawkins has probably been elected governor.

WASHINGTON COUNTY. Special dispatch to the Chronicle.

JONESBORO, Nov. 2. Fourteen districts in this county give Hawkins 1151; Wright 766; Pettibone 1435; Taylor 1518—a gain for Pettibone of 233 over two years ago. Pettibone will carry Washington county by 150 majority and is elected. Brown, for the senate, and Grisham, for representative, are both elected by large majorities.

HAMBLETON COUNTY. Special dispatch to the Chronicle.

MORRISTOWN, Nov. 2. Official returns have been received from six out of ten districts and show large republican gains. Four out of the six districts yet to hear from, the first, sixth, ninth and tenth all give heavy republican majorities. The official vote gives Hawkins seventy majority, Pettibone fifty-five, and will carry the county by from 100 to 125 majority. The republican gain in Morristown is forty; in the fifth, sixteen; and Whitesburg districts, forty. McNally for representative, and Green for senator, will carry the county by a good majority.

Special Dispatch to the Chronicle.]

MORRISTOWN, Nov. 2. All the districts of Hamblen county are heard from except one. Pettibone's majority will be about 150.

BRADLEY COUNTY. Special dispatch to the Chronicle.]

CHARLESTON, TENN., Nov. 2. In Charleston district Wilson 130; Wright three; Hawkins thirty-eight. For senator: Carter 138; Shipley thirty-four. For florator: Stewart 128; Fouts forty; Hancock 118; Garfield fifty-two. For congress: Dibrell 128; Case forty-one.

Calhoun district. (McMinn.) Hancock 121; Garfield thirty-four; Wilson 122; Wright twelve; Hawkins fifty-two; Carter 128; Shipley sixty; Dibrell 110; Case thirty-four. For representative: Conner low-tax democratic fifteen; Ivins state credit democratic fifteen; Butram republican fifty-eight.

Ninth district. (Bradley.) Wilson twenty-three; Wright two; Hawkins thirty-three; Edwards fifty-two; Carter eighty nine; Shipley thirty-two.

BLOUNT COUNTY. Special dispatch to the Chronicle.]

LENOIRS, Nov. 2. Friendsville gives Garfield, Hawkins and Duggan one hundred and sixteen; Hook one hundred and seven; McTeer one hundred and fourteen; democratic ticket nine.

WILLIAMSON COUNTY. Special dispatch to the Chronicle.]

FRANKLIN, TENN., Nov. 2. Three districts, including Franklin, gives Wright 191, Hawkins 434, Wilson 356. It is impossible to get the result of the election for local candidates before to-morrow.

HAYWOOD COUNTY. Special dispatch to the Chronicle.]

BROWNSVILLE, TENN., Nov. 2. Poston republican is elected to the legislature. Hawkins' majority is ten or twelve hundred.

MINN COUNTY. Special dispatch to the Chronicle.]

ATTENS, TENN., Nov. 2. Twelve districts heard from give Garfield 113; Hancock nine hundred and three; Hawkins 1025; Wright 481; Wilson 589; Dibrell nine hundred and six; Case 1162; Buttram, republican, is elected by 300 to 400.

The districts to hear from in McMinn county will give Hawkins a plurality of from 450 to 500.

The vote of the fourth district, McMinn county, is as follows: Garfield 50 for president; Hancock 80; Hawkins 45 for governor; Wright 23; Wilson 59; Case 48 for congress; Dibrell 63; Shipley 48 for senator; Carter 74; Buttram 48, republican for representative; Carver 45, low tax; Ivins 35, democrat. Vote polled, 1327.

LOUDON COUNTY. Special Dispatch to the Chronicle.]

LOUDON, Nov. 2. Returns from seven districts give Garfield 746; Hancock 400; Hawkins 743; Wright 316; Wilson 78; Hook 700; Shipley 742; Carter 400; Dawson 729; Cannon 495. Four districts to hear from will increase the republican majority to five hundred.

LOUDON, Nov. 2, 1880. MR. EDITOR:—Returns from five districts in Loudon county give the following majorities:

Garfield and Arthur.....253
Hawkins.....257
Hook.....258
Shipley.....271
Dawson.....250

Six districts to hear from and which will swell these majorities to over 500 votes for each republican candidate. I will send you full returns to-morrow. J. D. F.

SHELBY COUNTY. Special dispatch to the Chronicle.]

MEMPHIS, TENN., Nov. 2. The vote polled in the city developed the fact that the democrats took but little interest in the election, while the negroes swarmed and remained about some of them all day. This apathy on the part of the democrats causes them to lose the whole legislative ticket, and probably the congressional ticket from this district. Wilson received only 1058 in the city; Wright 857, and Hawkins 471. It was one of the most orderly elections ever held here, except at those polling places where the negroes kept up a noise all day. In the fifth ward this made it very difficult for a white man to get to the polls. In this ward the usual negro majority is about one hundred and fifty, but to-day they carried it by more than six hundred.

Special Dispatch to the Chronicle.]

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 2. Dibrell is re-elected by about 3,000. Chattanooga gave 622 republican majority. This county gives a republican majority of nearly 1,000. The democrats concede the election of Gaston and Kennedy, the candidates respectively for senator and florator. Wilson's vote in this county will be less than three hundred.

Bainbridge, Ga., June 11, 1850; "Dr. Tatt: Dear Friend—You know the cause of my bad health. I had concluded that there was no remedy that would relieve me until I used the pills you sent me. They proved to be the very thing I needed. I am under lasting obligations to you for the blessing you have conferred on me and mankind generally."

everything was quiet. A large democratic majority was polled. Edgfield, Nov. 2.—Everything passed off quietly. The democratic majority at the court house was 700; democratic majority in the county will be from 800 to 4000.

Sumpter, Nov. 2.—Twenty-five hundred negroes have concentrated here from all parts of the country. No disturbance has occurred as far as heard from. Indications are that the county is democratic.

Walhalla, S. C., Nov. 2.—A light poll in our county. Walhalla and West Union polled about 150, nearly 175 of which are republican. The majority for the democrats in the county will be between 1,300, and 1,800. Negroes voted almost solid for Garfield and Stubbard for congress. Everything is quiet.

TENNESSEE.

Chatanooga, Tenn., Nov. 2.—The total vote of Chattanooga foots up 22,000. The largest vote by 400 over polled here. The republicans claim the election of their entire ticket by 500 majority. Hayes' majority was 246.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 2.—The vote throughout this state has been usually heavy, and owing to the multiplicity of candidates the count is very slow. The count is between Hawkins, the republican, and Wright, state credit democrats, for governor. Wilson, republican candidate for governor, has been badly beaten. The Tennessee congressional delegation has been elected, except in the first and tenth districts, which are close and yet in doubt. Hancock's majority in the state will probably reach 40,000.

At present the outlook is close between Hawkins (rep.) and Wright, dem., for governor. Returns as to the legislative ticket are too meagre to form an opinion as to the result. The republicans claim a majority on joint ballot. The defeat of Young, dem., for congress in the tenth district is reported. The democrats concede the election of Hook, rep., for congress in the second district.

Meigs returns from Clarksville give Wright, debt paying democrat, 200 majority over Hawkins and 800 over Wilson, repudiating democrat. Five districts of Maury county give Wright 300 majority over Hawkins and 1000 over Wilson. Partial returns from Sumner county give a republican majority of 100 over Wilson and 300 over Wright.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—The polls opened at 7 o'clock this morning. The reports from various parts of the city show that great interest is felt in the election, and a heavy vote is being polled. There is some scratching of the republican candidate for city controller, E. Harber Jeffries, in favor of Mr. Patterson, democrat, the present incumbent. A number of election cases were brought before Judge Allison this morning, none of which, however, were of importance. The returns received from all the wards up to 10 o'clock, by the republican managers, the figures being as follows: City, 10,000; county, 10,000; total, 20,000. The figures of the tickets deposited show a majority of 15,000, so far, for Garfield. Eleven wards show a net republican gain of 3190 over the vote of 1876.

Forty voting places show a net democratic gain of 147.

DELAWARE.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 2.—The election is progressing under considerable excitement. The police force is augmented by over 200 specials, and a still larger number of deputy sheriffs are on duty. The United States deputy marshals are equally as numerous. No conflict of authority has occurred. At the tenth ward polls a colored man giving his name as James Matthews was challenged as a non-resident, and an inspector and supervisor of election ordered his arrest. He was taken to the police station, where a special, whereupon three United States deputy marshals interfered and attempted to rescue him. The marshals were then arrested by the special police and taken before Mayor Almond. The mayor told them that he wished no conflict of authority, but he wished them to co-operate with the police in the preservation of peace. He discharged them telling them to go back to the polls and attend to the duties assigned them. A colored man, Thos J. Plater, has been arrested in the tenth ward for illegal voting, but it was proved he voted under misapprehension of his proper voting place.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 2.—Presidential vote for Garfield 1627; Hancock 1243. The same towns in 1876 gave Hayes 1635; Tilden 1204; a net republican loss of forty-seven. Gubernatorial vote for two towns: Bell, republican, 1808; Jones 1259; scattering 11. The same towns in 1876 gave Hayes 1635; Tilden 1204; a net republican loss of forty-seven. Gubernatorial vote for two towns: Bell, republican, 1808; Jones 1259; scattering 11. The same towns in 1876 gave Hayes 1635; Tilden 1204; a net republican loss of forty-seven.

Forty towns give Garfield 6380; Hancock 5388. The same towns in November, 1876, gave Hayes 463; Tilden 5005; republican loss 105. For governor: Fort towns give Bell, republican, 6283; Jones democrat 5282. The same towns in November, 1876, gave Hayes 463; Tilden 5005; republican loss 105. For governor: Fort towns give Bell, republican, 6283; Jones democrat 5282. The same towns in November, 1876, gave Hayes 463; Tilden 5005; republican loss 105.

Sixty towns give Garfield 9449; Hancock 8355. The same towns in 1876 gave Hayes 9030; Tilden 7797, a net republican loss of forty-one. For governor, Bell 9386; Jones 8133; scattering 138; a net republican gain of 705.

MARYLAND.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 2.—The election is proceeding in a most quiet and orderly manner. A very heavy vote is being polled in every ward. Up to this hour, 1 p. m., only four arrests have been made on one for drunkenness and the others for minor offenses. Hartford county gives Hancock 500 majority, which is a republican gain of 473. The republican candidate for congress has 200 majority in the county. Worcester county gives a democratic gain of 100. The republican candidate for congress has 200 majority in the county. Worcester county gives a democratic gain of 100. The republican candidate for congress has 200 majority in the county.

Annapolis, Nov. 2.—The vote in this city shows a republican gain of 154. Wilmer, republican for congress, has 55 majority.

WISCONSIN.

Milwaukee, Nov. 2.—Thirty-five towns heard from give 1619 republican majority, a republican gain of 872 over the vote of 1876.

Four precincts of the city show a republican gain of 740 over the vote of 1876. There was a full vote. Fifty-seven towns gave a republican majority of 4325 and a republican gain of 947.

VERMONT.

Rutland, Vt., Nov. 2.—Thirty-six towns give Garfield 10430, Hancock 4899, a net republican gain of 5531. This percentage will give the state to Garfield by 58,000 majority.

NEW JERSEY.

New York, Nov. 2.—It was announced at republican headquarters to-night that New Jersey had gone for Garfield. The excitement in the city over the election is intense.

Warren county gives a democratic majority of about 2000. Republicans gain 400. All towns of Union county except Elizabeth give a republican majority of 492.

Bergen county gives about 600 democratic majority. Republicans gain over 500.
